LIVE GREEN, LIVE WELL HIGHLIGHTS

Live Green, Live Well, the green home furnishings + design trade show at the SF Mart, was a great success. Attendees learned from some of the best experts and innovators in the field. We appreciate the support of the American Society of Interior Designs (ASID) for helping us provide this outstanding conference: Ray Anderson • David Bergman • Gerry Cooklin • Lydia Corser • Deborah Dunning • Rowena Finnegan • Eric Corey Freed • Nicholas Green • Jennifer Roberts • Victoria Schomer • Annette Stelmack

Many companies, while not completely "green," are introducing eco-friendly products into their collections. Here you can find green products year-round at the SF Mart: Allan Copley Designs • Calligaris • Capel Rugs • Decima Island Design • Green Light • Kichler Lighting • Lite Source • New Pacific Direct • Padma's Plantation • Peti Antik • Phillips Collection • Red Vanilla • SEE Imports • Sedgfield Lamps • SDH • Shaw Lifestyles • Zocalo

“ I check places like the Building Resources for interesting pieces that can be transformed to add a little character to an interior.

It really has to be the right client though. Some people won't even entertain the idea of something from the "junkyard." More often it is just a matter of finding a creative way to display a collection that they already own. ”

GIVING BACK

SOPHIE AZOUAOU OF SOPHISTICATE INTERIORS HAS BEEN AT IT AGAIN!

Just months after completing some apartments for Citivatch, Sophie has dedicated her time and talent to designing the Aftercare facility at the Raphael House. The following SF Mart showrooms generously donated product for the project: Alchemy at Home, Capel Rugs, Lexington, Ochi & Co., and Wanda Spangenberg Associates. Sophie truly brings meaning to the words "Design Community."

▲ San Francisco Mayor Gavin Newsom along with Sophie Azouaou and Executive Director Father David Lowell celebrate at the grand reopening of the facility with the children of Raphael House.
